Research and Inquiry Strand: Overall Expectations

Exploring:
explore topics related to the subject area, identify concepts, and formulate questions to guide research and inquiry

Investigating:
create research plans and locate and select information relevant to chosen topics, using appropriate research and inquiry methods; formulate hypotheses, questions and theses

Processing Information:
assess, record, organize, analyze and synthesize information; document sources; form conclusions

Exploring:
communicate the results of research and inquiry clearly and effectively, and reflect on and evaluate research, inquiry, and communication skills

Excerpted from Social Sciences and Humanities, 9-12 (2013) Front Matter