PURPOSE

The revised 2016 Differentiated Instruction Educator's Package is intended to support educators who are new to differentiated instruction (DI) as well as those who are refining their approach to differentiation.

The Differentiated Instruction Educator's Package supports educators in:

- Understanding differentiated instruction
- Improving student learning by recognizing and addressing their diverse strengths and needs
- Seeing the value of a differentiated approach to teaching and learning
- Recognizing that differentiation does not mean doing everything differently
- Taking new instructional actions, small or large, beyond current levels of implementation
