

harnessing the power of

to Assess, Support, and Lead talk

Literacy Learning

7th Annual

Literacy Summer Symposium 2017

Monday, July 17 - Thursday, July 20

Kempfenfelt Conference Centre, Barrie Ontario

Teachers and Instructional Leaders who support adolescent learners in all subject areas are invited to attend.

Leveraging student talk is essential in every subject area. Learn how to assess and respond to student learning needs by exploring the power of talk that supports student learning and professional learning.

Keynote Speaker

Vicki Vinton is a literacy consultant and writer who brings passion to student learning and professional learning. She is the author of Dynamic Teaching for Deeper Reading: Shifting to a Problem-Based Approach (2017), and coauthor of What Readers Really Do: Teaching the Process of Meaning Making. She also writes a popular literacy blog To Make a Prairie (www.tomakeaprairie.com).

Kempfenfelt Conference Centre

Kempfenfelt Conference Centre (3722 Fairway Rd, Innisfil, ON L9S 1A5) is located on the shores of Lake Simcoe just outside of Barrie Ontario.

Spaces are limited and available on a first come, first served basis.

ADOLESCENT LITERACY LEARNING

For More Information and Registration

Check out bit.ly/literacysymp2017