

Distinctions between Presentation and Facilitation

Discussion and 2-way sharing

Ideas from group are solicited regularly

Session involves a process of knowledge creation

Session involves shared question finding and goal setting

Participants take on various roles

Positive group dynamics are supported and key to moving forward

Session is lecture or interactive style

Speaker does majority of talking

Information is delivered to participants

Participants are the audience

Pace, visuals and capturing attention are most important